OUR STORY/MISSION

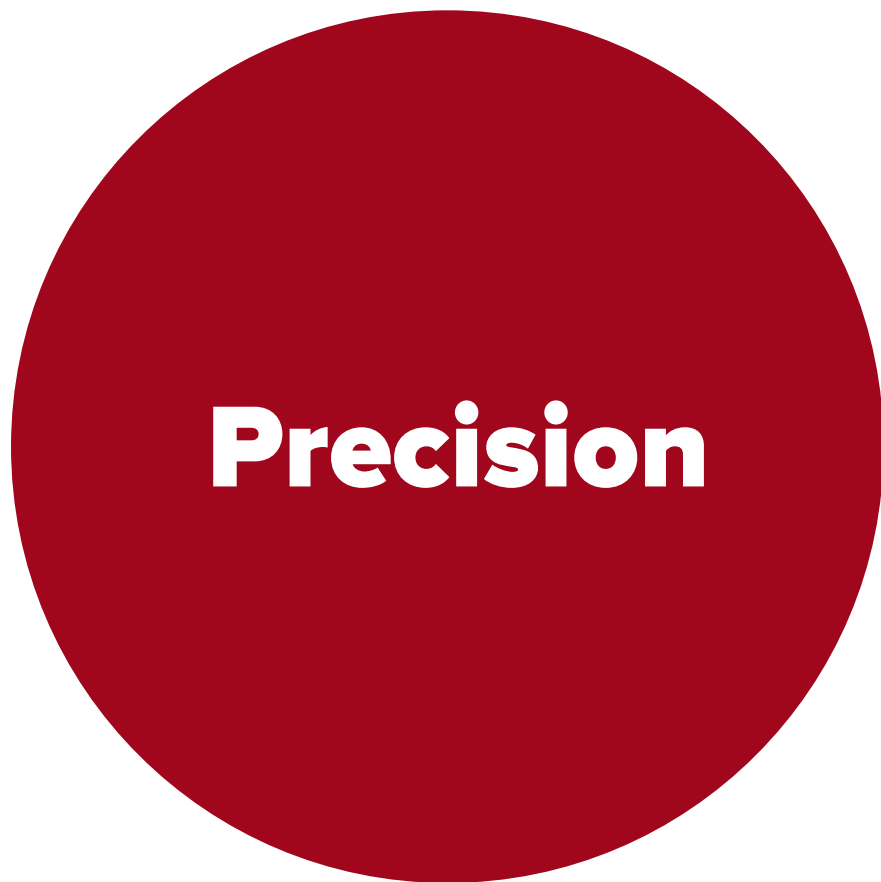

Our True Story:

Our journey began with a dream, a vision to preserve and share the ancient traditions of archery and the profound connection between humans and horses. Founded by Ahmed Alnimr, a seasoned archer and adventurer, ARKDAR was born from a deep love for this art. Driven by this passion, Ahmed Alnimr embarked on a quest to create a haven for archery enthusiasts and adventure seekers. With meticulous craftsmanship, our team began crafting exquisite handmade traditional bows and arrows that embodied the authenticity of ancient archery traditions. But it was not just about equipment; it was about imparting knowledge and skills. Enter Ahmed Alnimr, our extraordinary instructor whose name is synonymous with 'wonderful' and 'great.' Ahmed brought a wealth of expertise to ARKDAR, ensuring that every visitor would have the opportunity to master the art of horseback archery, fine-tune their aim, and craft their own personalized archery equipment through engaging workshops.

Mission Statement:

Our vision didn't stop at physical experiences. ARKDAR, in its pursuit of preserving the ancient art, extended into the digital realm. Our vast library of digital books, guides, and resources became a treasure trove of knowledge for archery enthusiasts. Here, the history and techniques of horseback archery were explored, deepening the understanding and passion for this time-honored discipline. Our identity is shaped by the dedication to preserving traditional archery while embracing the spirit of the Mamluk cavalry. We welcome seasoned archers and curious beginners alike, inviting them to embark on an extraordinary journey into the world of Oriental adventures, guided by our expertise. As the CEO, Ahmed Alnimr envisions ARKDAR as a place where individuals can tap into their inner rebel, embrace the ruggedness of adventure, and form lasting friendships with our equine companions. It is more than a business; it is a heartfelt endeavor to share a timeless art and spirit with the world.
